GARBAGE COLLECTOR FACES TRIAL JULY 11

"Rubbish," is the latest battle cry raised by city officials as they clash once more with Francis Foley, local rancher.

A complaint charging him with illegal operation of a garbage transfer station north of the Civic Center on Madrona was entered in South Bay Municipal court, with trial set for July 11.

The city only recently filed another complaint against Foley for letting manure pile up. He finally removed the mess by the time the matter came up in court.

Foley insists that his garbage transfer and pick-up operation does not violate the city ordinance, according to City Attorney Stanley Remelmeier.

However, the City Council, who ordered the complaint filed, feels differently.

Sign-ups for Local Fiesta Under Way

Entries are pouring in for the first annual Torrance "Ranchero Days," it was announced today by Lt. D. C. Cook, of the Torrance Police department.

Cook, who is coordinator for the Chamber of Commerce sponsored event, said that a record number of Southern California's finest bands will appear headed by the Air Force band from March Air Force base.

Other bands confirmed are Long Beach Youth band, Bellflower Ranger band, Sepulveda Youth band, Torrance Area Youth band and American Legion Post 305 (Crenshaw) color guard.

Cook added that a number of mounted groups have entered, headed by the Firestone Sheriffs Mounted Women's posse. It is hoped that local organizations, commerce and industry will enter floats in what promises to be the largest parade in Torrance history. Cook added.
